

Sally Ann Hilleary's

Will

Clarence Worthington Hilleary
Executor

I Sally Ann Hilleary of Frederick County in the State of Maryland being of sound and disposing mind do hereby make this my last will and testament, and after^{all}/my debts and funeral expenses are paid, I will and devise as follows.

I give and bequeath to my dear brother, Clarence Worthington Hilleary during his life my interest in the farm "Clarendon" on which we now reside amounting to five thousand three hundred and thirty five dollars and ninety three and a half cents, as the deed I hold for the same will show, and at his death I will and bequeath five thousand dollars of this amount to my niece Sally Worthington Hilleary but should she die under age or without issue then in that case I desire this amount to be equally divided between my nieces and nephews then living, share and share alike. I also desire that at the death of my brother Clarence three hundred dollars of the amount left shall be paid^{to}/my niece Sarah Ellen Knapp.

I give and bequeath to my nephew Harry Wheeler Hilleary the sum of five hundred dollars, but should he die before becoming of age I desire the said amount shall be paid to his sister Sally Worthington Hilleary.

I give and bequeath to my nieces and nephews children of my brother William the sum of one hundred dollars each.

I give and bequeath to my brother John and his children the sum of one hundred dollars each.

I give and bequeath to my nephew William Jahan Baugher the sum of one hundred dollars.

I give and bequeath to my niece Lillie Knapp and her children the sum of five hundred dollars.

I give and bequeath to my sister Elizabeth M. Baugher the sum of two hundred dollars.

And lastly I constitute and appoint my brother Clarence Worthington Hilleary to be my sole executor of this my last will and testament,
